2012 AGATHA BEST FIRST NOVEL AWARD

2012 DAPHNE DU MAURIER AWARD

2012 RWA GOLDEN HEART® FINALIST

FRISCO, Texas. (2013) – Henery Press announces Susan M. Boyer's LOWCOUNTRY BOIL has won the 2012 Agatha Best First Novel Award. Winner of the Daphne du Maurier Award for Excellence in Mystery/Suspense and 2012 RWA Golden Heart® Finalist, first installment in the Liz Talbot Southern PI series is rife with secret and is a refreshing blend of island allure and suspense.

Private Investigator Liz Talbot is a modern Southern belle: she blesses hearts and takes names. She carries her Sig 9 in her Kate Spade handbag, and her golden retriever, Rhett, rides shotgun in her hybrid Escape. When her grandmother is murdered, Liz high-tails it back to her South Carolina home to find the killer. She's fit to be tied when her police-chief brother shuts her out of the investigation, so she opens her own. When her long-dead best friend pops in, things really get complicated. More folks start turning up dead in this small seaside town, so Liz must use more than her just her wits and charm to keep her family safe, chase down clues from the hereafter, and catch a psychopath before he catches her.

Praise for LOWCOUNTRY BOIL:

"Plenty of secrets, long-simmering feuds, and greedy ventures make for a captivating read... Boyer's chick lit PI debut charmingly showcases South Carolina island culture." — Library Journal

"Lowcountry Boil offered an intriguing mystery and a unresolved romance which should keep enthusiasts of both genres happy and eager to read the next book in the series.... The book was a page turner full of southern charm. I gobbled it up quickly and I can't wait to read the sequel. Five stars out of five." - Lynn Farris, National Mystery Review Examiner at Examiner.com

"Lowcountry Boil avoids caricatured Southerners and pulls the reader in like the draw of a riptide with a keeps-you-guessing mystery full of romance, family intrigue, and the smell of salt marsh on the Charleston coast. A welcome visit home with people you want to know and, in some cases, are glad you aren't related to. A fun summer read!" - Cathy Pickens, author of the Southern Fried mysteries and Charleston Mysteries
